VANCE COUNTY BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
WORK SESSION
April 20, 2026

The Vance County Board of Commissioners held a work session on Monday, April 20, 2026, at 4:00 p.m. in the Commissioners' Conference Room, Vance County Administration Building, 122 Young Street, Henderson, NC. Those commissioners present were as follows: Chair Carolyn Faines, Vice-Chair Commissioner Charisse Fain, Commissioners R. Dan Brummitt, Yolanda J. Feimster, Leo Kelly, Jr., Commissioner Tommy Hester, Jr. and Valencia Perry.

Also present were County Manager C. Renee Perry, Assistant County Manager Jeremy Jones, Special Projects Director Frankie Nobles, Director of Planning and Development, and Clerk to the Board Dywanda Pettaway.

UDO. Sherry Moss, Planning and Development Director, along with Michael Harvey of NFocus Planning Consultants, presented the draft Unified Development Ordinance (UDO) to the Board of County Commissioners for initial feedback. This draft UDO consolidates and modernizes the County's existing land use regulations into a single document, guiding zoning, development standards, and long-term growth in alignment with the County's Comprehensive Land Use Plan. The Board has expressed a desire for a thorough and deliberate review process, including robust community engagement and dedicated work sessions to fully dissect and evaluate the UDO.

Comprehensive Development Plan. Sherry Moss, Planning and Development Director, presented an overview of the proposed update to the Vance County Comprehensive Plan to the Board of County Commissioners. The presentation outlined the need to update the County's existing plan, which was originally adopted in 1996 and last revised in 2010, and emphasized the importance of aligning future growth, land use, and development decisions with current conditions and community needs. The presentation also detailed the anticipated scope of work, including a comprehensive review of existing land use data, development of an updated Future Land Use Map, robust public engagement efforts, and collaboration between County staff, stakeholders, and the community throughout the process.

Proposed Public Hearing. Ms. Perry informed the board that staff is looking to implement a new Public Hearing Policy and Guidelines. Each board member was given a copy of the draft policy to review and discuss during the next meeting.

Revised Public Comment Policy. Ms. Perry informed the board that staff is looking to revise the Public Comment Policy that is currently in place. The addition that is being added is the following: Speakers wishing to present remarks in a language other than English must first present the English version of their comments. The standard time limit shall apply, and no additional time will be granted to accommodate remarks in another language. Each board member was given a copy of the draft policy with revision to review and discuss during the next meeting.

As there was no further business, at 4:28 p.m., a motion was made by Commissioner Leo Kelly, Jr. and seconded by Commissioner Charisse Fain, vote was unanimous to adjourn the work session.
